

Manifesto of the United Islam

Manifesto of the United Islam

Rashid Shaz

Rashid Shaz

The Prophet, peace be upon him, had entrusted the ummah with Islam alone. The early day believers called themselves 'Muslims', which was the only identity that God had bestowed upon them. How on earth did it happen then that this divinely ordained identity was unseated by Shia, Sunni like self-tailored identities?

To retrieve the lost format of Islam and to resurrect it anew is a collective responsibility of all groups of its followers. Not only does our community's future depend on this endeavor but the collective interest of all nations of the world is also linked to it. The purpose of bringing out this booklet is actually to provide a spur to the process of this retrieval.

Free downloads, by the same author, are available at:

www.RashidShaz.com

e-books are also available at:

www.BarizMedia.com

Also visit our multi-lingual journal

www.futureislam.com

The Prophet, peace be upon him, had entrusted the ummah with Islam alone. The early day believers called themselves 'Muslims', which was the only identity that God had bestowed upon them. How on earth did it happen then that this divinely ordained identity was unseated by Shia, Sunni like self-tailored identities?

To retrieve the lost format of Islam and to resurrect it anew is a collective responsibility of all groups of its followers. Not only does our community's future depend on this endeavor but the collective interest of all nations of the world is also linked to it. The purpose of bringing out this booklet is actually to provide a spur to the process of this retrieval.

Free downloads, by the same author, are available at:

www.RashidShaz.com

e-books are also available at:

www.BarizMedia.com

Also visit our multi-lingual journal

www.futureislam.com